COLDPLAY AND BTS RELEASE NEW VERSIONS OF MY UNIVERSE SINGLE

Coldplay have today unveiled two new versions of My Universe, their hit collaboration with BTS which has been streamed more than 50 million times since its much-anticipated release three days ago.

The stripped-back Acoustic Version of the track is available here, while the Supernova 7 mix, created by Coldplay's Guy Berryman, can be streamed here.

Meanwhile, a short film documenting the recording of My Universe in BTS's Seoul studio alongside Coldplay's Chris Martin premiered yesterday on the South Korean group's YouTube channel, at https://youtu.be/viM_c-Fc7sc.

My Universe, which hit Number One on iTunes in 95 countries upon its release last week, has already been heralded by NME as “a sparkling single”, with Billboard praising the “galaxy-sized collaboration” and USA Today calling it “another surefire hit”.

The song's music video is expected to follow soon.
