Multi-platinum global superstars Jason Derulo and Michael Bublé are bringing the heat on “National Spicy Margarita Day” with fiery new track, “Spicy Margarita,” available now via Atlantic Records HERE. The surefire hit sampled from Dean Martin’s iconic “Sway,” which Bublé famously covered on his debut studio album over 20 years ago. Bublé’s version of “Sway” has amassed more than 415 million global streams to date.

The first-ever musical collaboration from the two chart-topping international icons, “Spicy Margarita” follows Bublé’s recent appearance on the premiere episode of Derulo’s new podcast series, On The Road, co-hosted by Sincere Show and available now via all leading podcast providers.

“Michael’s music has been a major part of my life. So, I played him ‘Spicy Margarita’, and he jumped on it immediately. He asked, ‘Is it okay if me and my guys add some orchestration?’ I was like, ‘Hell fucking yeah!’ ‘His version was unbelievable. It was exactly what I envisioned. It has a Latin feel with a little Brazilian funk. I’m really excited for everyone to hear it.” – Jason Derulo

“The roots of what I do and what I love – the standards, the Great American Songbook – fit so perfectly with everything Jason is creating musically. Mixing the old school standards with a more modern pop sound was only a matter of time, and I knew if anyone was going to get it, it would be Jason. Right away I was excited, and then I listened to the demo and was blown away. I’m thrilled for everyone to finally hear ‘Spicy Margarita’ and hope you love it as much as we do.” – Michael Bublé

“Spicy Margarita” kicks off what looks to be another busy year for the indefatigable Derulo. The chart-topping sensation is to unveil the curtain on his 27-song project Nu King on February 16, available to pre-save now via Atlantic Records HERE. The project will include his previously-release hit singles and new music.

Last year saw a non-stop series of releases from the industrious superstar including his acclaimed collaboration with fellow multi-platinum global superstar, GRAMMY® Award-winner Meghan Trainor, “Hands On Me \(Feat. Meghan Trainor\),” available HERE. The track – which was teased across social media by both artists, and showcased by Derulo with a spectacular live performance on NBC’s America’s Got Talent, streaming HERE – was met by critical applause from the likes of American Songwriter, which raved, “Derulo has made a career of consistently switching up his sonic direction. Both artists seem in their element on this nostalgic song.” The fun video also featured superstar socialite + business woman, Paris Hilton, and paid homage to and celebrated the 20th anniversary of the hit reality show, The Simple Life, which Hilton co-starred alongside her best friend Nicole Richie. With his Nu King album slated to release February 16, Derulo is set to embark on the “Nu King World Tour,” with dates in Portugal, Kazakhstan, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, France, Netherlands, Luxembourg, Belgium, the United Kingdom, Ireland, Germany, Austria, Czech Republic, Italy, Switzerland, and Spain slated through June 2024. ### ABOUT JASON DERULO

Jason Derulo may be recognizable worldwide as a multiplatinum singer and songwriter, visionary entrepreneur, best-selling author, committed philanthropist, and engaging presence, but his story starts unassumingly. The self-described, "Kid from a Haitian family in Miami," has quietly and consistently grinded to emerge as one of his generation's most prolific stars. Generating tens of billions of streams and reaching a $100 million net worth, his global sales exceed 250 million singles with dozens of multiplatinum and platinum certifications for smashes such as "Wiggle" [feat. Snoop Dogg], "Take You Dancing," "Talk Dirty" [feat. 2 Chainz], "Whatcha Say," and more. Derulo has three songs streamed over 1 billion times each under his belt, namely "Swalla" [feat. Nicki Minaj & Ty Dolla $ign], "Want To Want Me," and "Savage Love (Laxed – Siren Beat)" [with Jawsh 685]. The latter even claimed the #1 spot on the Billboard Hot 100 in addition to toppling charts in 16 countries. He's the rare force of nature equally at home in a duet with BTS or Luke Bryan. With nearly 200 million followers across platforms, he notably remains the "4th most-followed male on TikTok and 11th biggest account overall." He's appeared in various films and television series, including Spinning Gold and Empire. His portfolio encompasses ownership stakes in Rocket Car Wash, Pro Volleyball Federation, and the Omaha Supernovas. Plus, he penned the bestselling book Sing Your Name Out Loud: 15 Rules for Living Your Dream and created the UZO graphic novel in collaboration with Z2 Comics. Once again, he tells a story you've never heard on his fifth full-length offering and Atlantic Records debut, Nu King, beginning with "Spicy Margarita" [with Michael Bublé].
