Gearing up for what promises to be a bold creative chapter, award-winning, multiplatinum global superstar, actress, producer, entrepreneur, philanthropist, New York Times-bestselling author, and generational icon Hilary Duff has signed to Atlantic Records for her highly anticipated return to music.

In addition, an intimate docuseries is in the works, which will chronicle Duff's long-awaited musical return and personal journey, offering an unfiltered vignette into Hilary's world. Embracing the ups, downs, and everything in between, fans will ride shotgun as she balances raising a family, recording new music, live show rehearsals, and preparing to perform on stage for the first time in over a decade.

Directed and executive produced by Grammy-nominated and Emmy Award-winning director Sam Wrench [Taylor Swift: The Eras Tour, A Nonsense Christmas with Sabrina Carpenter] through Next of Kin Content, an EverWonder Studio company, the series will feature a fascinating fusion of vérité footage, stylized interviews, performances, and videos from her personal archive.

ABOUT HILARY DUFF

Hilary Duff is best known for her breakout role as the titular character in the hit Disney Channel series, “Lizzie McGuire.” Her performance led to the successful theatrical release of The Lizzie McGuire Movie, cementing her place as a leading teen star. Notable film credits from her early career include Agent Cody Banks, A Cinderella Story, and Cheaper By The Dozen.

In recent years, Duff produced and starred as the lead of the hit Hulu series “How I Met Your Father,” as well as the critically acclaimed series “Younger,” from “Sex and The City” creator Darren Star. On the big screen, she co-starred in John Cusack’s critically acclaimed war film War, Inc. and starred as the titular character in According to Greta, alongside Oscar-winner Ellyn Burstyn. In addition to balancing a busy career, Duff also spent the last number of years building the family life she had always envisioned, with her husband and four children.

Duff has a globally prolific and successful singing career, entering the Top 40 music charts with the singles "So Yesterday" and "Come Clean." Her first three studio albums, 2003’s multi-platinum blockbuster Metamorphosis, 2004’s self-titled platinum-seller, and 2007’s autobiographical dance-pop collection Dignity, have sold a collective 15 million copies worldwide. Her most recent album, 2015’s Breathe In. Breathe Out., is a stellar collection of catchy, electro-tinged pop gems, many of which she co-wrote with groundbreaking songwriters and producers such as Sean Douglas (Jason Derulo, Demi Lovato), Tove Lo (Ellie Goulding, Icona Pop), Matthew Koma (Zedd, Alesso, One Republic), Bloodshy (Madonna, Britney Spears, Kylie Minogue) and Ed Sheeran – one of Duff’s favorite artists – who wrote and vocal produced “Tattoo.” The album was released in June 2015 on RCA Records and rocketed to #1 on iTunes in the hours upon its release. Additionally, the album debuted at #3 on the Billboard Overall Album Chart and #5 on the Billboard Top 200, marking Hilary’s fifth straight top five debut.
