Shoreline Mafia kicked off a movement in the late 2010s with their laid black flows and speaker-knocking party anthems, and now they're back to reclaim the West Coast throne. As they continue their "Back In Bidness Tour," the duo of OHGEESY and Fenix Flexin return with "OUT MY MIND," their new single. Produced by Monster Norm, Menace, and Quad, "OUT MY MIND" rides an electro-funk bounce with sinuous synths and propulsive percussion. The duo trade verses back and forth, setting each other up with lyrical alley-oops. "Bad b*tches at the door screaming, 'let me in'/Fenix Flexin' on the road, screamin, 'tag me in,'" spits OHGEESY, and Fenix Flexin answers: "Tag me in, I'm jumpin' off the ropes, brother/F&N stock clip, want smoke, brother/You know I'm who she finna call like the Ghostbusters."

"OUT MY MIND" continues Shoreline Mafia's epic 2025 comeback tour, highlighted by Back In Bidness, their first album as a group since 2020's GOLD-selling Mafia Bidness. Rekindling the legendary partnership between OHGEESY and Fenix Flexin, who handle all 16 tracks with no features, Back In Bidness debuted on the Billboard 200 albums chart, and has generated more than NUMBER million streams since its release in April. More recently, Shoreline Mafia teamed up with YG for his Ty Dolla $ign-produced single "Hollywood," which went viral on TikTok, reaching the platform's Top 20 songs chart, and reached #44 on YouTube's music video chart. Shoreline made waves this summer with the release of their funk-sampling single "ROCKIN" (NUMBER million streams to date), which is currently charting at #18 on Rhythmic Radio (#17 Peak).

Shoreline Mafia is currently on the road, performing the "Back In Bidness Tour." Their first tour in over five years, Shoreline Mafia's "Back In Bidness Tour" finds the band performing classic hits like the Platinum-certified "Musty" and "Nun Major," fan-favorite singles like "Change Ya Life" and "Gangstas & Sippas," and plenty of songs from Back In Bidness, including the title track (16 million streams on Spotify alone). The tour kicked off on September 10th, and continues through major markets across the U.S. including New York, Boston, Atlanta, Seattle and more, before wrapping up on October 23rd in Los Angeles with a hometown show at the Kia Forum. The "Back In Bidness Tour" follows the group's first-ever performance at Coachella in April 2025.
