Shoreline Mafia have been soundtracking house parties and club nights across the West Coast for nearly a decade, but their best years are still ahead. The Multi-Platinum duo, OHGEESY and Fenix Flexin, connects with an unexpected collaborator, teaming with hitmaking dance producer Disco Lines (best known for his Hot 100-charting "No Broke Boys" with Tinashe) "Quickest Routes," their new single. Disco Lines meets GEESY and Fenix where they live, serving them a slick helping of propulsive L.A. street noir, defined by a rubbery bassline, twinkling keys, and propulsive kick-snare. The two emcees slide on the track, trading hustle-hard couplets and charming non-sequiturs: "I'm a Sagittarius, my son a Pisces," spits OHGEESY.

Along with "Quickest Routes," Disco Lines' remixes of some of Shoreline's most beloved hits are finally getting an official release. Included on the new single are remixes of "Musty" and "Nun Major," two Platinum-selling hits from the group's breakout mixtape ShorelineDoThatShit, and "Bands," Shoreline's most-streamed song to date.

2026 promises to be a big year for L.A.'s favorite rap group, as they build upon a 2025 which saw them end their hiatus and tour for the first time since before the pandemic. OHGEESY and Fenix Flexin kicked off their comeback with the album Back In Bidness, their first album as a group since 2020's GOLD-selling Mafia Bidness. Rekindling the duo's legendary partnership, Back In Bidness debuted on the Billboard 200 albums chart. Shoreline celebrated the release of Back In Bidness with their first-ever performance at Coachella in April 2025.

Last summer and fall, the duo took the nation by storm on their "Back In Bidness Tour," culminating in an epic, sold-out show at Los Angeles's Kia Forum, where they hosted a star-studded celebration of their music and cultural impact. In front of a crowd of 12,000, the duo led the crowd through a litany of their local and national hits, including "Musty," "Nun Major," "Gangstas & Sippas," "Trap House," and "Bands," before bringing out a litany of special guests. Guests who performed during that special night included YG, who teamed with Shoreline last year for their single "HOLLYWOOD," Ty Dolla $ign, Big Sean, Coi Leray, BlueBucksClan, Mike Sherm, Kamaiyah, and many more.

"Quickest Routes" follows a series of successful singles from last year, including "HOLLYWOOD," which went viral on TikTok, reaching the platform's Top 20 songs chart, and reached #44 on YouTube's music video chart. Shoreline made waves in Summer 2025 with the release of their funk-sampling single "ROCKIN" (30 million streams to date on Spotify alone), which peaked at #17 on Rhythmic Radio. Recently, Shoreline released the single "OUT MY MIND," recruited Diplo to remix "HOLLYWOOD," and collaborated with Ty Dolla $ign, Tyga, and Quavo on the posse cut "DON'T KILL THE PARTY," from Ty's album TYCOON.

Re-assuming their place atop the L.A. street rap hierarchy, Shoreline Mafia is continuing a new era of success. Stay tuned for much more from OHGEESY and Fenix Flexin in the near future.
