Nashville-based, soulful singer-songwriter Macy Todd makes her signing to Atlantic Outpost official with today’s release of her debut EP, pretty ruthless, available everywhere now HERE. The six-song project features a new standout track, “mean!,” which is joined by a live performance video now on YouTube HERE, and embodies a sound that is ethereal yet grounded, blending a 2000s hippie revival spirit with modern alt-pop sensibility.

“I wrote ‘mean!’ at a time when I was learning how to speak up for myself,” says Macy Todd. “Growing up, I always felt like saying what I really thought came with a consequence. I think most women can relate to that feeling. I wanted this song to feel light while carrying something so heavy, and I think it does exactly that.”

Produced by Jon Joseph (Sublime, Børns, illuminati hotties), pretty ruthless also includes deeply personal tracks such as “love of my life,” “bad bad love,” “someone to you,” and the contemplative “so ruthless,” the latter joined by an official music video streaming HERE.

The EP release marks a new chapter for Todd, kicking off her official partnership with Atlantic Outpost.

"There are moments that make everything feel real, and signing with Atlantic Outpost was one of them," she shares. "I'm incredibly grateful to have a team that believes in me and these songs as much as I do. It feels like such a special time to be part of what Outpost is building, and I'm so excited for what's ahead. The day I signed, my dad surprised me with Roberta Flack's First Take and Killing Me Softly on vinyl. We used to listen to those records together when I was growing up, and I remember seeing the Atlantic logo on those albums long before I ever imagined my name would be connected to it. It was one of those full-circle moments I'll never forget. I grew up admiring so many of the artists who helped shape Atlantic's legacy, and getting to be a small part of that story is something I'll never take for granted."

Macy will further celebrate the arrival of pretty ruthless with her biggest North American live schedule thus far, supporting fellow Atlantic Outpost recording artist Willow Avalon's "The Pink Pocket Pistol Tour" beginning September 8 at Atlanta, GA's Terminal West. Highlights include eagerly awaited stops at venues Carrboro, NC's Cat's Cradle (September 9), Washington, DC's 9:30 Club (September 12), Montreal, QC's Théâtre Beanfield (September 17), and New York City's historic Webster Hall (September 20).

This upcoming run follows a wave of live momentum for the Lawrenceville, GA native, who recently captivated audiences across the US supporting social media star Zinadelphia at iconic venues, including Nashville, TN's Exit/In, Washington, DC's The Atlantis, New York City's Bowery Ballroom, and Philadelphia, PA's Theatre of Living Arts. The rising artist also turned heads during CMA Fest 2026 with a standout Whiskey Jam performance, which featured a surprise collaboration on her fan-favorite track "pocket change" with country superstar Avery Anna. Blending the timeless emotional depth of Patsy Cline with a Sheryl Crow-esque Americana sensibility, Todd's knack for intimate storytelling and plainspoken lyricism has rapidly built a dedicated social media following, setting the perfect stage for her highly anticipated headlining and support dates this fall.

ABOUT MACY TODD:

With her warm, lived-in voice and roots-leaning sound, Macy Todd expertly balances classic songwriting with quiet modern candor, plainspoken lyricism, and understated, heart-forward style. Having first learned the ropes of songwriting while playing music in the church, Todd's soulful sound is inextricably shaped by her Georgia upbringing. Blending intimate storytelling reminiscent of Patsy Cline with the Americana sensibility of Sheryl Crow, the Lawrenceville native has quickly connected with a growing social media fanbase through songs like "something pretty," "casualties & coca cola," and the fan favorite "pocket change." After introducing fans to her new music on a run of live dates supporting social media star Zinadelphia earlier this year, she made headlines during Nashville's 2026 CMA Fest at Whiskey Jam's exclusive residency at Dierks Bentley's Whiskey Row. Her performance featured a surprise collaboration with rising country superstar Avery Anna, who hailed "pocket change" as "one of my favorite songs ever, of all time." Now, with today's long-awaited debut of pretty ruthless, and a series of live dates supporting Willow Avalon, Macy Todd's journey continues with unabashed originality and creative spirit.
